[illegible][illegible]The image shows a single page from a music manuscript book. It contains ten horizontal musical staves, each consisting of five lines. The staves are arranged vertically, one below the other, with equal spacing between them. Each staff begins with a short vertical line on the left side, which serves as a brace or a starting point for notation. There are no notes, clefs, or other markings on the staves; they are completely blank except for the structural lines.[illegible]
